

Rotary Club of Southbank presents Southbank Speaker Series hosted for

Strategic Influence

Geoff Kelly

GEOFF KELLY set up consulting and coaching practice Kelly Strategic Influence Pty Ltd in 2001. He is a widely respected expert in leadership influence. He works with clients who know their success depends on commitment - the extent to which they can get key staff, suppliers, customers and others to commit fully to their ideas and strategies.

Geoff is an in-demand speaker, writer and executive coach on leadership influence, persuasion, and applying leadership communication to achieving business results. He runs a course on strategic communication for graduate students at RMIT University, is a frequent speaker at the Australian Institute of Management, other professional associations and the national conferences of various organisations.
